

5. Wamego is a contributor to the Kansas Universal Service Fund ("KUSF") and has an interest, on its own behalf and on behalf of its customers, in assuring that both contributions to and distributions from that fund are lawful and appropriate.

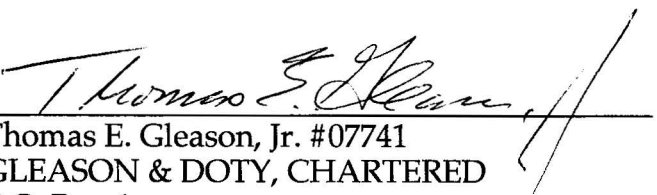

6. Wamego further has an interest, individually and together with the interests of all ratepayers, in assuring that actions of this Commission relating to the KUSF are made in a competitively neutral manner as by law provided.

7. The Commission should provide a reasonable opportunity for discovery as to the claims of the applicant.

8. The Commission should adopt a procedural schedule for consideration of the Cox application, including opportunity for discovery and submission by all interested interested parties of prefiled testimony, to be followed by an evidentiary hearing. Such action will increase assurance that Commission action on the Cox application it is lawful and in the public interest.

WHEREFORE Wamego requests: the Order of the Commission granting leave for Wamego's intervention as an interested party herein: adoption of a procedural schedule as discussed above; an Order for hearing in the above-entitled proceeding: and such other and further relief as may be just and equitable herein.

Respectfully submitted,
