CURB's Motion to Remove Confidential Designation

from Staff Report of February 14, 2005

The Citizens' Utility Ratepayer Board (CURB) responds as follows to the Motion of Large Volume Customers to Make Public, and not Subject to Confidential Designation, "Staff's Report and Recommendation Analyzing Aquila, Inc.'s February 9, 2004 Financial Plan and Containing Staff's Cash Flow Analysis," which was filed in the above-captioned docket on February 18, 2005, by National Beef Packing Co. L.L.C., Excel Corporation and John Morrell Great Bend (Large Volume Customers):

1. CURB, as the statutory representative of the residential and small commercial ratepayers of the public utilities in Kansas, sought and was granted intervention in this docket to safeguard the interests of its constituents. CURB concurs with the motion of the Large Volume Customers to remove the confidentiality designation from the Staff Report and accompanying documents, filed February 14, 2005 in this docket, for all the reasons stated therein.
2. CURB therefore adopts, as if stated herein, all the arguments of the Large Volume Customers as presented in its motion, and respectfully moves the Commission to remove the confidentiality designation from the Staff Report and all accompanying dockets.

Respectfully submitted,

Niki Christopher #19311
