Once the utility lines have been marked and you're ready to dig in the vicinity of utility lines...

Use only rounded/blunt edged tools.

- Don't use axes, hand or powered posthole diggers, picks, mattocks, pry/probing bars or mechanized equipment, as these often result in damage.
- Keep the face of the shovel parallel with the utility line markings.

- If the utility line is visible, keep the face of the shovel parallel with the utility line and use all precautions when removing the soil from around the utility line.
- Don't be aggressive with digging close to utility lines.

- Don't pry against a utility line.
- Don't take for granted that a utility line will be at a certain depth.
- ✗ Don't assume an unmarked line is abandoned.
- M Don't assume that a utility line that is uncovered will be the only one. There may be another line underneath or close by.

✗ Don't become frustrated if you do not encounter a utility line right away. Frustration can lead to carelessness and eventual damage to the utility line.

- Don't expose excessive lengths of a utility line.
- ✗ Don't leave utility lines exposed while unattended.
- Don't attempt to move underground utility lines.
