- b. Requests from customers for additional services may be made verbally, if the original contract provides that such additional service may be ordered, and no advance payment will be required. A move from one location to another within the same Exchange Area is not considered to terminate the contract and orders for such moves may be made verbally.

2. Telephone Numbers

The customer has no property right in the telephone numbers or any right to continuance of service through any particular central office, and the Company may change the telephone number of central office designation, or both, of a customer whenever it deems it advisable in the conduct of its business to do so.

3. Alterations

The customer agrees to notify the Company promptly in writing whenever alterations or new construction on premises owned or lease by the customer will necessitate changes in the Company's writing or equipment; and the customer agrees to pay the Company's filed charges for such changes. (T)

4. Maintenance and Repairs

All ordinary expense of maintenance and repairs to Company-owned equipment is borne by the Company. Customers may not rearrange, or disconnect, or remove an apparatus or wiring, up to and including the Network Interface Device (NID), installed by the Company. In case of loss of, damage to, or destruction of any Company equipment occasioned by neglect of customer, the customer is held responsible for cost of restoring equipment to its original condition.

5. Customer's Authorization

The Company may require satisfactory written authorization for the right to construct, install, and place required facilities on the customer's premises in order to make the service connection. Such written authorization, when required, shall be properly executed by the holder of the legal title to the premises. The Company may refuse to furnish service to any person, firm, or corporation thereon until such requested authorization is provided.

F. TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES

- 1. The Company will in January of each year make available upon request to any subscriber a copy of the directory. Subscribers may request a copy of the directory in person at the Company premises. Subscribers may also access the directory on the Company's website. (CR)
