The Commission rules as follows:

1. On March 21, 2025, Operator filed an application as described by the above application. On April 10, 2025, Twyla Hoobler Wagner, as Trustee of the Twyla Hoobler Wagner Trust (the Trust), submitted a protest and request for hearing.

3. The Commission finds a prehearing conference should be scheduled.
4. Under K.A.R. 82-1-228(d)(1), any party may either “appear before the Commission and be heard in person on that party’s own behalf,” or appear before the Commission through a licensed attorney. Because the Trust is an artificial entity, it cannot appear in person.² Thus, Commission regulations require artificial entities such as the Trust to appear before the Commission

At the prehearing conference, without further notice, this proceeding may be converted into a conference hearing or a summary proceeding for disposition of this matter as provided by the Kansas Administrative Procedure Act (KAPA). Any party that fails to attend or participate in the prehearing conference, hearing, or other stage of this proceeding may be held in default under the KAPA.⁵
