and Barber Counties, Kansas.)

Docket No. 11-ITCE-644-MIS

APPLICATION FOR INTERVENTION

COMES NOW Chermac Energy Corporation (“Chermac”) and petitions the State Corporation Commission of the State of Kansas (“KCC” or “Commission”) for an order in the above-captioned proceeding, permitting Chermac’s Intervention herein and full participation rights to Chermac in this Docket. In support of its Application for Intervention, Chermac states:

1. Chermac is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Oklahoma.

2. Chermac is a developer of wind energy projects in the States of Kansas and Oklahoma, and thus has a direct and material interest in the Commission’s determinations in these Dockets.

3. The authorization and certification of Project(s) by the Commission, including the location of electric transmission lines and appurtenant facilities, their design and operation, will materially impact wind energy projects currently under development by Chermac, or contemplated for development by Chermac.

4. No other party to this Docket can adequately represent the interests of Chermac in this Docket.

WHEREFORE, Chermac respectfully requests the Commission grant its Application for Intervention, and that Chermac be granted full party status with all rights granted to parties participating in Dockets at the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

SMITHYMAN & ZAKOURA, CHARTERED
