Officers and Directors

The officers of GoDaddy.com are as follows (it has no directors):

Blake J. Irving – CEO: Blake brings passion and vision—along with serious tech credentials—to the role of CEO. Before coming to GoDaddy in 2013, Blake was EVP and Chief Product Officer at Yahoo!, where he expanded monthly users to nearly one billion, launched 180 new Yahoo! websites worldwide and rolled out products in 23 languages and 30 new markets.

Prior to Yahoo!, Blake spent 15 years at Microsoft creating world-changing consumer products like NetMeeting, MSN Messenger and growing Hotmail to the largest mail service in the world. As Corporate Vice President of the Windows Live Platform, Blake led the company's global Internet development and operations, managing a $1 billion global R&D budget and overseeing development teams in the US, India, China and Europe.

Blake began his career at Xerox and Compaq and has been a professor at Pepperdine's School of Business. Blake earned an M.B.A. from Pepperdine University and a B.A. from San Diego State University.

Scott W. Wagner - COO, CFO: As GoDaddy's COO/CFO, Scott manages the company's business operations as well as all financial reporting, budgeting and forecasting. Prior to Blake Irving's appointment as CEO in January 2013, Scott spent six months working on several strategic growth initiatives as GoDaddy's interim CEO—including the company's expansion into India. Before joining GoDaddy, Scott spent 13 years with global investment firm KKR, where he served as a KKR Capstone Member and the long-time leader of its Portfolio Operations team. Scott holds a B.A. from Yale University and an M.B.A. from Harvard University.

Nima Jacobs-Kelly - EVP, GC, CSEC: Nima is General Counsel for GoDaddy, responsible for mergers & acquisitions, governance, corporate and patent litigation, and intellectual property matters, as well as customer-facing and third-party transactional agreements.

Since joining GoDaddy in 2002, Nima has served as project manager, Vice President of Wild West Domains (the company's reseller affiliate), Public Relations and Corporate Administration, and Deputy General Counsel. She also grew the company's philanthropic efforts with GoDaddy Cares. In her life before GoDaddy, Nima worked for Business Edge Solutions and Beechwood Data Solutions. She also practiced labor and employment law in New York City. Nima earned her J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and a B.A., summa cum laude, from Gettysburg College where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Barbara J. Rechterman – SEVP: As Chief Marketing Officer and Chief Customer Officer, Barb oversees all facets of corporate marketing and strategic end-to-end customer relationships. Barb creates programs and promotes consumer-related functions with a unified vision to provide a consistent customer experience and value. All while including strategic planning and business development for Marketing, Global Branding and Product Management. She has teamed with GoDaddy founder Bob Parsons for more than two decades, having previously served as Vice President of Application Development for Parsons Technology and as President during the company's acquisition by Intuit, Inc. Barb earned a B.A. in Accounting from the University of Dubuque and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Matthew Kelpy - Chief Accounting Officer and Executive Officer: Matthew B. Kelpy has served as our Chief Accounting Officer since November 2014. Prior to joining our company, he served in various accounting roles at AOL Inc. from July 2005 to November 2014, most recently as Chief Accounting Officer. Mr. Kelpy holds a BBA degree in Accounting and a Master of Accounting degree from the University of Michigan and is a Certified Public Accountant.

Michael Holt – VP, Tax: Michael Holt joined GoDaddy in June 2013. Mr. Holt had been a tax partner at public accounting firm BDO in Arizona and prior to this was Global Director, Tax Accounting Automation at Jefferson Wells. He was educated at Brigham Young University.

Description of Services

GoDaddy.com responses to Questions 10(a), (b), and (c) are provided below:

- A. Applicant's short and long run growth plans for providing intrastate telecommunication service in Kansas (i.e. What services will be provided and how quickly? Will service be offered statewide to residential business or residential and business? Are specific local exchanges, localities or the service area(s) of specific companies included in these plans? If local service, how many exchanges will be served and which of those will be served first? What are the general characteristics of those exchanges?).

GoDaddy proposes to provide resold interexchange telecommunications services throughout the entire State of Kansas. Specifically, Applicant will utilize a proprietary interactive voice response ("IVR") and unified messaging platform. Applicant will purchase toll free and direct inward dialing ("DID") numbers, and resell those numbers as part of a virtual office service. Small business customers then can use those numbers to access Applicant's integrated suite of additional services and functionality, including: auto attendant, call forwarding/distribution, call queuing, call screening, Internet fax/fax back, and enhanced voicemail capabilities such as voice-to-text conversion and email delivery of voicemails. FreedomVoice may also provide Interconnected Voice over Internet Protocol ("VoIP") services.

Additionally, Applicant expects exponential customer growth nationwide, and within the State of Kansas.

- B. Estimated number of company service personnel assigned to telephone service who will be located in Kansas during the time periods mentioned above?

Applicant does not plan at this time to have any employees in Kansas.

- C. What telecommunications equipment will be deployed in the state and where will it be deployed over the period of time mentioned above?

Applicant will not deploy any telecommunications equipment in the State of Kansas. Instead, as a provider of resold interexchange telecommunications services, Applicant will rely upon the facilities and equipment of its underlying providers in order to provide services within the state.

Enforcement Actions

GoDaddy.com's responses to Questions 10(d), and (e) are provided below:

- D. Has any state or federal entity denied certification to your company or taken any enforcement action against your company's service operations (such as a fine or a Cease and Desist action)? If so, please explain.

No state or federal entity has denied the Applicant a certification regarding the provision of telecommunications services or taken any enforcement action against its telecommunications service operations.

- E. Provide a list of enforcement proceedings or criminal charges involving applicant or its principals in connection with the provision of telecommunications services within the last five (5) years anywhere in the United States including, but not limited to:

injunctions

cease and desist orders

civil lawsuits

consent decrees

assurances of voluntary compliance

civil investigative demands (CID's)

Identify the office or administrative agency that instituted each action, the date it was instituted, and the outcome thereof. Provide a copy of the final order or judgment. (This does not include actions for the collection of debts or domestic matters.) If not actions apply please indicate none.

None.

Management Qualifications

GoDaddy.com's responses to Questions 11(a), and (b) are provided below:

- A. Description of applicant's actual experience in the telecommunications business, specifically that represented in this application.

GoDaddy.com, through its parent company, GoDaddy Inc. ("GoDaddy"), is an Internet domain registrar and web hosting company. It is the world's largest technology provider dedicated to small businesses. GoDaddy's mission is to radically shift the global economy toward small businesses by empowering people to easily start, confidently grow, and successfully run their own ventures. With more than 14 million customers worldwide and more than 62 million domain names under management, GoDaddy gives small business owners the tools to name their idea, build a beautiful online presence, attract customers, and manage their business.

- B. Managerial qualification of your company's key personnel (copies of resumes are appropriate).

GoDaddy is guided by an experienced and highly capable management team that includes individuals who have distinguished themselves in executive positions within the communications industry. GoDaddy's management team possesses extensive business, technical, operational, and communications experience. Information regarding GoDaddy's management team is available at <https://aboutus.godaddy.net/about-us/default.aspx#Section2.team>.

The officers of GoDaddy.com also are listed in Exhibit A. In addition, Barrett Saik has served as our Senior Vice President and General Manager of GoDaddy's telephony products group since April 2016. Prior to joining our company, Barry worked in a number of roles ensuring consumer satisfaction with mass-market products at Intuit from 2001 to 2015, including Head of Intuit's consumer finance products: Mint, Mint Bills and Quicken. Barry also served as general manager of the company's Intuit Websites Division and led Product Management for TurboTax for many years. Saik also previously served as Director of Product Management for Vayusphere. Saik earned an MBA from UCLA, and bachelor's degrees in General Engineering, Product Design and in Communications from Stanford University.

Exhibit E

Current Operations

GoDaddy.com does not currently provide service, but is in the process of applying for authorization or registering to provide long distance interexchange and interconnected VoIP services in all fifty states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico, to the extent required by the laws and regulations of the specific jurisdiction.
